Gait Analysis in the North

Department of Orthopaedics and
Regional Medical Physics Department at the Campus for Ageing and Vitality
(formerly known as Newcastle General Hospital)

Directions to the Gait Analysis Unit

Attending an appointment at the Gait Analysis Unit based at Campus for Aging and Vitality (formerly Newcastle General Hospital)

The site is easily accessible by car (with plenty of parking) and has bus stops to the front and rear of the site. The nearest Metro and railway station is Newcastle central station.

Park and ride in Newcastle.

If travelling from outside Newcastle, an option is to use the park and ride facility with the Metro train, however this will also involve a bus journey from the city centre.

You can phone Traveline North East for information on buses, trains and metros in the region. Their contact number is 0870 200 22 33.

Directions by car to Newcastle General Hospital

The hospital is off Westgate Road (A186) and is signposted either as Newcastle General Hospital or Campus for Aging and Vitality (signs at the entrance to the site are Campus signs).

If you are using GPS, the postcode of the Hospital is NE4 6BE.

Car parking:
There is good parking on site with many disabled places. Disabled parking is free. Charges for non-disabled places are £1.20 per hour. The closest spaces to the gait lab are marked on the map below. If you park near the main entrance, there is a long walk.
Map of the site

The gait lab can ONLY be accessed from the entrance to building 15 where there is nearby parking.
