

THE NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE HOSPITALS NHS FOUNDATION TRUST

POLICY STATEMENT ON THE RECRUITMENT OF EX-OFFENDERS

1. As an organisation using the Criminal Records bureau (CRB) Disclosure service to assess applicants' suitability for positions of trust, The Newcastle upon Tyne Hospitals NHS Trust complies fully with the CRB Code of Practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly. It undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a Disclosure on the basis of convictions, or other information revealed.
2. The Trust is committed to the fair treatment of its staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependants, age, physical/mental disability or offending background.
3. This policy statement on the recruitment of ex-offenders is made available to all Disclosure applicants at the outset of the recruitment process.
4. We actively promote equality of opportunity for all the right mix of talent, skills and potential, and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience.
5. A Disclosure is only requested after a thorough risk assessment has indicated that one is both proportionate and relevant to the position concerned. For those positions where a Disclosure is required, all application forms and job adverts will contain a statement that a Disclosure will be requested in the event of the individual being offered the position.
6. Where a Disclosure is to form part of the recruitment process, we encourage all applicants called for interview to provide details of their criminal record at an early stage in the application process. We request that all candidates complete a Disclosure application prior to interview and hand this to a designated person of the interview panel. This information is handled in strict confidence and we guarantee that it is only to be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process.
7. Unless the nature of the position allows the Trust to ask questions about your entire criminal record, we only ask about "unspent" convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.
8. We ensure that all those in the Trust who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance and training in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.
9. At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offence(s), or other matter(s) that might be relevant to the position.
10. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment.
11. We make every subject of a CRB Disclosure aware of the existence of the CRB Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.
12. We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a Disclosure with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working with us. This will depend on the nature of the position and the circumstances and background of your offence(s).
